A NEW TEACHING TECHNIQUE. Without doubt, programmed instruction through teaching machines, special textbooks, and other devices will soon have a dramatic impact on our schools. So that teachers, parents, and others may learn about this new technique, a demonstration and discussion will be held today from 5:00 till 6:00. A Canadian expert has been obtained -- Dr. John Paul, a psychology professor at the University of Western Ontario. He studied programmed instruction at Harvard under Skinner and Holland. Hart House, East Common Room.

THE NEUTRALIST POSITION. The final President's Lecture will round off the series, which has already presented a Russian and a Western view of the roadblocks to peace. Dr. Amiya Chakravarty, former adviser to the Indian delegation to the U.N., will present "The Neutralist Position". Noon on Wednesday, but no lunches in Convocation Hall, please.

DANCE AND SPLASH PARTY. Again this week, you have your choice of activities at the Hart House Wednesday Night. Have a refreshing dip and splash your friends in the pool, dance upstairs to the bandbox, play cards, watch short films, or listen to classical records -- or try all five activities! 9:00 till midnight.

Before all this begins, George and Mary Lewis will provide instruction in special dances (for only a dollar) starting at 8:00 in Hart House. Instructional methods are stressed, so that you learn these dances and how to teach them. You can start this Wednesday; each lesson is a self-contained unit.

STRATFORD FESTIVAL. Summer students have a choice of two Tely tours next week: The Tempest on Tuesday (July 31) and Cyrano de Bergerac on Friday. If interested, obtain details or sign the list in the Information Centre in Hart House. Your tickets will be ordered for you.

STUDENTS' COMMITTEE. Throughout the summer session, members of the Students' Committee have been assisting in planning and carrying out the activities provided for all summer students. They also have acted as hosts at various activities. The dance and splash party each Wednesday would not be possible without their help. If you, too, would like to lend a helping hand, please see Mrs. Deane in the Information Centre.

RANDOM JOTTINGS. An attractive and lively book based on last summer's President's Lectures has been edited by Dr. D. C. Williams, Director of the Division of University Extension. Called The Arts as Communication, it is on sale now at the U. of T. Book Store for only $2.50. --- It takes only about ten minutes to learn how to use the Hart House record rooms; instruction is provided Tuesdays at 1:00 and Thursdays at 3:00 --- Those lawn chairs south of Hart House are for your use. Move them into the sun or shade if you wish, just as long as you don't move them into your own back yard! --- Remember to check the students' notice-board (in the Information Centre) often for notes about rides, lost and found, textbooks, etc. --- The Book Exchange (behind 119 St. George St.) opens tomorrow but closes on Friday for the summer --- Two Red Cross blood donor clinics are being set up for students this week: Tuesday at O.C.E. and Friday in Hart House. Hours are 9:30 to 11:00 and 12:30 to 3:30 (no appointment necessary). Men students willing to help carry equipment for the Friday clinic at 8:30 or 3:45 or both should see Mrs. Deane --- Food is not allowed in Hart House or its quadrangle except during special events --- Any student willing to handle the movie projector on a Wednesday evening should leave his name and telephone number at WA.3-6611, local 332.
